Please note:

Admission to St. Columba's School is solely based on the student's performance in the entrance test, interview, and seat availability. No candidate is guaranteed admission.

Applicants are advised not to request appointments with school authorities regarding admission through any means.

The school does not accept donations in exchange for admission, nor does it engage or encourage third-party involvement. The admission process is strictly between the applying parent and the school, with no guarantees of acceptance.

The Principal's decision on admissions is final. No individual is authorized to seek admission on behalf of a child unless they are the legal guardian. Parents and guardians should not rely on or trust anyone—inside or outside the school—who claims to have influence over the admission process.
